

7/9/06

Author visits school

Máire Dunleavy, who has written 'The Pops Family' reading scheme, visited our school.

She was interested in finding out what we think of the new readers.

She met Laura and Devin to get their opinions too.

They had some interesting comments to make!

Máire came with her brother, Tony. They brought lots more new books to read and some great phonics games.

